

GUIDELINES FOR THE CUPOLA WALKING ASCENT

During the visit:

1. Visitors are required to wear the helmet provided and to strictly respect the guide's instructions.
2. Visitors must be appropriately dressed so that no object, accessory or clothing obstructs the visit in any way. It is therefore prohibited:
  - to wear tight clothing and high heeled shoes;
  - to bring bags, canes or bulky rucksacks;
  - to wear sunglasses, including graduated lenses.
3. Access to the Cupola is forbidden to visitors suffering from:
  - motor disabilities;
  - serious sight or hearing impairment;
  - heart or lung disease;
  - claustrophobia;
  - disorientation syndrome (labyrinthitis, vertigo, etc.).
4. Access to the Cupola is not allowed to children under 6 years of age.
5. During the visit, all mobile phones and filming devices may be used only in rest areas.

I have read the above guidelines and release the National Museum of Cinema of any responsibility for injury or damages suffered during the visit, caused by behaviour which does not comply with the guidelines herein explained.

Visitors accompanying minors agree to ensure that they respect the guidelines and take full responsibility for them.

Management reserves the right to deny access to the Cupola ascent when objective or subjective conditions make it impossible to guarantee the complete safety of its visitors.
